Our Christmas Wish

Would span earth's distance with a bridge of gold,
O'er which might pass to you a fadeless wealth
Of all good things, home, friends, unbounded health,
The fruit of hope, joy, strength and peace untold.
The quietude that comes from work well-done,
An active, joyous rest, from sun to sun.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS FROM THE L. H. & ST. L.

"The season's greetings and best wishes from the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Railway Company," were issued to the friends and patrons of the road Monday. They came from the general offices in Louisville on a handsome Christmas folder, the second page giving the names of the executive department, the legal, accounting and treasury departments, the operating and traffic departments. Santa Claus gave a most artistic touch to the folder. In the left-hand corner at the top of the first page is placed a Christmas tree, on which hangs the little red card of the Henderson Route, and underneath candle-lighted boughs, runs a heavy freight train, characteristic of those which are going over the road this winter. Across the center are the sentiments of the company, set under two bars of music: "Should auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind."

The greetings are an inspiration to men—men who appreciate friendship, who value good will in business, who love the Christmas spirit and try to live it every day. We send back to the Henderson Route our sincere, good wishes which we shall express by stronger and greater efforts in 1916 for the success of this road.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

Put sunshine and gladness to your "merry Christmas." Let it out with a merry ring and let your "thank you" fairly bubble over with appreciation. They are magic words if they come from the heart, and it costs nothing but a smile coupled with an honest, sincere expression to do it right. We should begin on Christmas Day to cultivate a sunny, cheerful exterior and a kindly smile, a cordial manner towards everybody, and we are sure to make acquaintances and friendships more easily. One of the greatest helps to happiness, to the progress of all mankind, is the habit of kindness, of the thoughtfulness for others, of saying kind things to others and about them. How many good things the Christian spirit brings to us and how many unpleasant things it keeps away from us. The Christmas spirit is in the air, may each and every one have the true spirit in their hearts of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

The Henderson Route placed an order last week with the Webster Stone Company, Irvington, for 3,000 cubic yards road ballast. This means business—home business—for the crusher and its employees, and means a big improvement of the road. The Henderson Route is a prosperous road and its prosperity permeates the whole community.

This is the last Breckenridge News day before the twenty-fifth. Isn't there some one to whom you would like to send our paper for Christmas? We have beautiful announcement gift cards. For sub-

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS!

At this season of the year we are reminded of our pleasant business relations with our customers and friends and we want to extend to them our kindest and best wishes for a Happy Christmas and a bright, joyful, prosperous New Year.

We thank every one of you for your patronage during the past year and ask a liberal share for the coming year.

We wish you one and all a Merry Christmas.

WILSON AND BRIDE SEEK SECLUSION

Have Whole Section of Hotel at Famous Virginia Resort.

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 20.—Reaching this retreat in the tree-clad foothills of their native state Sunday morning, President and Mrs. Wilson took to a wing of the hotel which had been reserved for them and did not leave it all day. Special services had been arranged for them, but they declined again to face the gauntlet of eyes, which seemingly they can not escape. The party was greeted heartily when it arrived. The residents of the little colony which rests in the foothills and of the hotel were present in large numbers to greet the party. The two alighted and walked briskly to their closed cars. To the applause of the crowd the president raised his hat and smiled, but he did not slacken his gait.

Mrs. Wilson, draped in a long black Astrakhan coat, was bundled until just her eyes and the tips of her ears could be seen. Motion picture men had hurriedly detoured and had their machines ready. But secret service men forcibly seized the machines and gruffly gave notice of a "no picture order."

The presidential party has a whole section of the hotel at its disposal. Although only the necessary suites have been reserved, all the newer section of the house, built in 1913, has been turned over. It has a number of exits and entrances of its own, so that the two need not pass through the main lobby.

Announce Wilson's Marriage.
Washington, Dec. 20.—Cards announcing the marriage of Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt were distributed through the mails.

To Farmers AND Stockmen

It is the report that the prevailing low prices of hogs is due to the cause of the corn crop failure in the State of Iowa which is a large hog-raising center. The farmers and stockmen of the State are forced to sacrifice their holdings, on account of having only produced one-fourth of their normal crop, and the present high price of corn makes feeding there prohibitive.

The dumping of all this stock on the market has influenced, downward, the general market. However, these conditions are only temporary, and are bound to have a reactionary effect.

Now is the time to buy feeders, when the price is low. Fatten them for the spring market, when the high prices will again prevail.

We can furnish Distillery Slop in tank cars containing 130 barrels to any point on the L. H. & St. L. between Stanley and Medora, Ky., at a cost per barrel of one-third of the selling price of a bushel of corn, which has a little better than an equivalent feeding value.

Any one desiring the Agency between the points above mentioned, will please write us at once.

Send It On.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Some days ago, or more likely some weeks ago, there came to the parsonage here at Hodgenville a card notice from you that my time had expired for the old "News." I have been in revival meetings nearly ever since, away from home, and like so many whom you have to call to duty I just overlooked the sending in "that dollar." We missed the paper this week, and at once thought of "that dollar," and resolved to send it in. We like the home paper because it is a letter from home, but not for this alone, as it is about the best county paper we know. Send it on quick, and find enclosed check to cover subscription for another year. Yours very truly,

R. O. Penick,
Hodgenville, Ky.

Pleasant Visitor.

Miss Susie Prout, who has been visiting Miss Essie Kendall, near Webster, returned to her home in Louisville Monday after a very pleasant visit.
